

UNION PACIFIC HISTORICAL SOCIETY 2020 ANNUAL CONVENTION

May 13-16, Cheyenne, Wyoming

Featuring Both Historical and Model Railroading Programs!

The convention is being held in conjunction with Cheyenne Rail Heritage Days, the Sherman Hill Model Train Show, and the Cheyenne Depot events. Presentations include an overview of Big Boy Operations in the 1940s and 1950s, Modeling Cheyenne in N-scale in 1954, Modeling UP Caboose, a Historical Sketch of Railroads in Cheyenne, and more!

There will be tours of the UP Steam Shop and rides to the shop will be via trolley from the depot. NO personal vehicles will be allowed on the UP property. You will receive a tour entry band to ride the trolley to the shop and will need to sign a release form. Also you will receive can armband to allow entry into the model train show for the whole weekend. There is ample parking at the Train Show and we will also be running a shuttle bus from the hotel to the venues. Weather permitting we will have some vintage equipment on display outside the hotel, and there will be a special display of live steamers in the hotel lobby.

Convention Hotel

The convention will be held at the Red Lion Hotel, 204 West Fox Farm Road. Take I-80 Exit 362, Central Avenue, south to the stoplight and turn west. The hotel will be a half-block on the right. Call 307-638-4466 to make a reservation. The Red Lion Hotel has airline shuttle service available to the Cheyenne airport. The convention room rate is $109 per night, and mention you are with the UPHS convention to receive our convention rate.

Registration

The registration table opens at noon on Wednesday and will remain open until 5:00 p.m. On Thursday, registration is open from 8:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m., and on Friday from 9:00 a.m. until noon. Convention clinics and programs will be held on Thursday and Friday. In addition to regular convention programs, on Thursday there will be Cheyenne trolley tours (with limited seating) of the historic downtown from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
